Amended (Articles 2 & 5) in the 46th Academic Affairs Meeting on Oct. 23rd, 2003
Amended (Article 2) in the 63rd Academic Affairs Meeting on Mar. 27th, 2012
Amended (Article 4) in the 70th Academic Affairs Meeting on Oct. 28th, 2015

- Article 1 These regulations are adopted for master's degree part-time and full-time students who would like to cross-select non-compulsory courses.
- Article 2 Master's degree part-time and full-time students who are qualified, based upon one of the below conditions, may cross-select non-compulsory courses:
1. The selected courses are not available in their own discipline.
 2. Students have studied for more than two years and have a class schedule conflict with re-taken courses, make-up courses, or major courses that may affect their graduation requirements.
 3. Other special conditions approved by the Dean of Academic Affairs.
- Article 3 Students who are cross-selecting courses must fill-out an application form, have it approved by course professors, both faculty chairs, and the Admissions Principle.
- Article 4 The waiving of cross-selection course credit limits is set by each faculty member themselves, and the limit is not allowed to be over half of the total graduate course credits (excluding thesis credit) for students in master's program who take courses in in-service master's program.
- Article 5 Master's degree part-time student tuition payment is set according to NCHU Guidelines for Student Tuition Payments.
- Article 6 These guidelines are to be implemented after being passed at the Admission Affairs Meeting, and the same applies in the case of other amendments.
